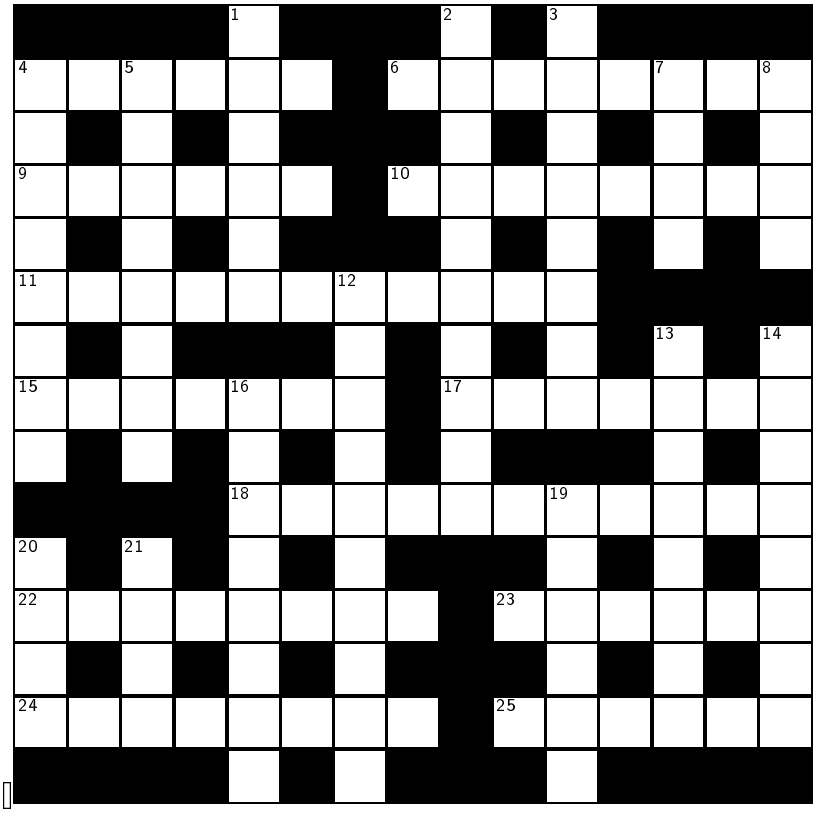
Puzzle 2

by Mulus

30th November 2003



Across

4 Walked from Dorset. (6)
6 Grieved for pound? Praise Edward! (8)
9 Climb out of position. (6)
10 Final call for anal? Include me, for one! (8)
11 He runs the house with volume? (11)
15 See almost weekly. (7)
17 Note: wet thnow thoundth quick. (7)
18 It's a sign – out-of-step sailor will reduce debt by nothing in ship. (11)
22 Yes, Spanish once more paired with leftover. (8)
23 There aren't many to leave a mark on Clint. (6)
24 Opening deals are mad, mad, mad! (8)
25 Open when the United Nations close. (6)

Down

1 Back was bad after a party, but he looked great. (6)
2 "Bitter," said a Turk, "all round. And some food." (10)
3 Every sado-masochist's head mounted in tree – dirty. (8)
4 A plague on all sado-masochists – or vice versa! (8)
5 Repeat direction of resort. (8)
7 Around the school pitch. (4)
8 His clocks were laid out! (4)
12 It's always forest clearings – where's the swamp? (10)
13 Kept complaining about two points of breeding. (8)
14 Archive footage shows not one confused response to shocker. (8)
16 Abiding desire battles with religious teachings. (8)
19 Stress! Sounds like we cut the talking tree. (6)
20 Drain off almost dry. (4)
21 Is he taking advantage? Sure is! (4)